Please answer these questions in full; your answers will form the basis of your variance request.

1. Would strict adherence to the letter of the ordinance cause an undue hardship to the applicant because of particular physical conditions of the subject property, i.e., shape, topography, soil characteristics? If so, please specify the conditions and hardship.

2. Will the granting of the variance affect adjacent property or any natural resource in either a beneficial or adverse manner?

3. Are the conditions upon which the variance request is based unique to the subject property? Are these conditions not generally applicable to other property in the adjacent areas, and not the result of the applicant's own actions? Please explain.

4. Is the variance consistent with the intent and purpose of the zoning and subdivision ordinances, and the Comprehensive Land Use Plan?
